

Godin Guitar Company Limited Lifetime Warranty

The Godin Guitar Company warrants our instrument to be free from defects in materials and workmanship. All electronic components, tuning machines, hardware, cases, and case hardware, are warranted for one (1) year from the date of original purchase.

If service is required, the guitar should (preferably) be returned with proof of purchase to the original, authorized dealer. The dealer will evaluate the guitar to determine whether it can be serviced locally, or if it should be returned to Godin Guitars. In the case of a purchase from Authorized Internet-only Dealers, please refer to their web sites for warranty information and instructions.

Please note: The Godin Limited Lifetime Warranty is non-transferable. All transportation, insurance and freight charges associated with warranty service and repairs on Godin instruments are the responsibility of the purchaser.
